FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEW HORIZONS COMPUTER LEARNING CENTERS JOINS PIASC AS BUYING POWER PARTNERS!

Los Angeles, CA—Bill Guerra, President of Western Pad Company, and Chairman of Printing Industries Association Inc., of Southern California, announced the addition of New Horizons Computer Learning Centers to PIASC's list of Buying Power Partners.

"We are pleased to provide printing industry members with this training resource at an initial discount of 12%," Chairman Guerra noted. Guerra added, "As the program grows and volume increases, the discount will also increase to a 15% discount and then to a maximum of 25%. I encourage members to look into the New Horizons Computer Learning Centers' extensive catalog of classes to solve your computer training needs."

PIASC is pleased to deliver another benefit of membership by partnering with New Horizons, which, for over 20 years, has provided learning solutions that have helped organizations achieve business results such as increasing productivity and efficiencies, driving revenue, and reducing costs. Moreover, their state of the art equipment and real-world solutions, taught by industry experts ensures high-deployable, reliable, and multi-leveled learning from anywhere, anytime.

PIASC and New Horizons want to help members meet their training goals by providing a comprehensive learning experience to maximize students' potential at a discounted price. Another benefit is that they make it easy for anyone to learn since they provide flexibility and an array of avenues for learning. Some of these are listed below:

- Instructor-Led – Learn the traditional way in New Horizons classroom with one of their certified instructors
- Mentored Learning – Students can gain the skills they need with focused learning, one-on-one mentoring, and flexible schedule
- Online LIVE – Combine the benefits of the classroom with the convenience of the Internet for a live e-Learning experience.
- Online ANYTIME – Learn at your convenience using our web-based training
- Private Group Classes – The instructor will cover your topic of choice, related to your specific business needs, using standard or custom curriculum
- On Site Training – Choose from an array of training options taught in the convenience of your location, using your equipment or New Horizons'.
