

2019 YEAR-END LEGISLATIVE UPDATE:

WHAT'S GOOD & WHAT COULD HURT

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 11, 2019 • 2:00 PM – 3:00 PM PST • FREE FOR MEMBERS

Your industry lobbyist has been keeping an eye on a variety of bills as it makes its way through the California legislature. Now that this year's legislative session has come to an end, here's an update from our lobbyist, RJ Cervantes of Fernández | Cervantes Government Affairs on what was signed into law...and what was not.

RJ will cover the following:

- Bills Signed into Law
- Bills Not Signed into Law-Eligible for Reintroduction Next Year
- Bills Not Signed into Law-Consider these "Dead"

About the Speaker

RJ Cervantes, Legislative Advocate, Partner
Fernández | Cervantes Government Affairs

In 2018, RJ Cervantes was named Partner of Fernández | Cervantes Government Affairs after accumulating 14 years of public and government advocacy experience. RJ has initiated advocacy strategies aimed at achieving legislative and regulatory objectives at the federal, state, and local level. He also advises national interests on how to navigate California's dynamic political environment.

Prior to joining the firm in 2017, RJ served as the Director of Legislative Affairs for the California Trucking Association (CTA). On behalf of 1,500 member companies, RJ developed and implemented lobbying efforts in Sacramento and DC. Through coalition building and grassroots activities, RJ established a substantial network of state legislators, Members of Congress, agency and administrative officials, and non-governmental organizations.
