A person or entity whose membership is suspended shall not be a member during the period of suspension.

(c) Procedure for Expulsion or Suspension. If grounds appear to exist for expulsion of a member, the procedure set forth below shall be followed:

(c) Special Meetings. A special meeting of the members may be called for any lawful purpose by a majority vote of the Board or by the Chair or by five percent (5%) or more of the members. A special meeting called by any person(s) (other than the Board) entitled to call a meeting shall be called by written request, specifying the general nature of the business proposed to be transacted, and submitted to the Chair, any Vice-Chair, the President or the Secretary of the Corporation. The officer receiving the request shall cause notice to be given promptly to the members entitled to vote, in accordance with Section 4.06(d) of these Bylaws, stating that a meeting will be held at a special time and date fixed by the Board, provided, however, that the meeting date shall be at least thirty-five (35) but no more than ninety (90) days after receipt of the request. If the notice is not given within twenty (20) days after the request is received, the person or persons requesting the meeting may give the notice. Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting, fixing, or affecting the date at which a meeting of members may be held when the meeting is called by the Board.

No business, other than the business the general nature of which was set forth in the notice of the meeting, may be transacted at a special meeting.

(d) Notice Requirements for Meetings of Members.

(i) General Notice Requirements. Whenever members are required or permitted to take any action at a meeting, a written notice of the meeting shall be given, in accordance with Section 4.05(d)(iii) of these Bylaws, to each member entitled to vote at the meeting. The notice shall specify the place, date, and hour of the meeting and, (1) for a special meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted, and no other business may be transacted, or (2) for the annual meeting, those matters that the Board, at the time notice is given, intends to present for action by the members. At any meeting at which Directors are to be elected or written ballots distributed for the election of Directors, the notice shall include the names of all persons who are nominees when the notice or the ballot is given.

(ii) Notice of Certain Agenda Items. Approval by the members of any of the following proposals, other than by unanimous approval by those entitled to vote, is valid only if the notice or written waiver of notice states the general nature of the proposal or proposals:

- A. Removing a Director without cause;
- B. Filling vacancies on the Board;
- C. Amending the Articles of Incorporation; or
- D. Electing to wind up and dissolve the Corporation.

(iii) Manner of Giving Notice. Notice of any meeting of members shall be in writing and shall be given at least ten (10) days but no more than ninety (90) days before the meeting date. The notice shall be given either personally or by first-class, registered, or certified mail, facsimile transmission, email, or by other means of written communication, charges prepaid, and shall be addressed to each member entitled to vote, at the address given by the member to the Corporation for purposes of notice. If no address appears on the books of the Corporation and no address has been given, notice shall be deemed to have been given if either (1) notice is sent to that member by first-class mail or telegraphic or other written communication delivered to the Principal Office of the Corporation or (2) notice is published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the Principal Office is located.

(iv) Affidavit of Mailing Notice. An affidavit of the mailing of any notice of any members' meeting, or of the giving of such notice by other means, may be executed by the Secretary, assistant Secretary, or any transfer agent of the Corporation, and if so executed, shall be filed and maintained in the minute book of the Corporation.

(e) Quorum.

(i) Number Required. Twenty-Five (25) of the Voting Members, present in person, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of members.

(ii) Loss of Quorum. The members present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business until adjourned, even if enough members have withdrawn to leave less than a quorum, if any action taken (other than adjournment) is approved by at least a majority of the members required to constitute a quorum.

(f) Adjournment and Notice of Adjourned Meetings. Any members' meeting, whether or not a quorum is present, may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of the majority of the members represented at the meeting, either in person or by proxy. No meeting may be adjourned for more than forty-five (45) days. When a members' meeting is adjourned to another time or place, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place to which the meeting is adjourned are announced at the meeting at which adjournment is taken. If after adjournment a new record date is fixed for notice or voting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each member who, on the record date for notice of the meeting, is entitled to vote at the meeting. At the adjourned meeting, the Corporation may transact any business that might have been transacted at the original meeting.

(g) Voting.

(i) Eligibility to Vote. Subject to the provisions of the California Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law, the only persons entitled to vote at any meeting of members shall be Voting Members who are in good standing as of the record date determined pursuant to Section 4.07 of these Bylaws.

(ii) Manner of Casting Votes. Voting may be by voice or ballot, except that any election of Directors must be by ballot if demanded by any member at the meeting before the voting begins.

(iii) Voting. Each member entitled to vote shall be entitled to cast one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the members. Cumulative voting shall not be permitted.

(iv) Approval by Majority Vote. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power represented at the meeting, entitled to vote and voting on any matter, shall be the act of the members, unless the vote of a greater number, or voting by classes, is required by the California Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law or by the Articles of Incorporation.

(h) Waiver of Notice or Consent by Absent Members.

(i) Written Waiver or Consent. The transactions of any meeting of members however called or noticed and wherever held, shall be as valid as though taken at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if (1) a quorum is present either in person or by proxy, and (2) either before or after the meeting, each member entitled to vote, not present in person or by proxy, signs a written waiver of notice, a consent to the holding of the meeting, or an approval of the minutes of the meeting. The waiver of notice, consent, or approval need not specify either the business to be transacted or the purpose of any meeting of members, except that, if action is taken or proposed to be taken for approval of any of those matters specified in Section 4.05(d)(ii), the waiver of notice, consent, or approval shall state the general nature of the proposal. All such waivers, consents, or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

(ii) Waiver of Attendance. A member's attendance at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of the meeting, unless the member objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened. Also, attendance at a meeting is not a waiver of any right to object to the consideration of matters required to be included in the notice of the meeting but not so included, if that objection is expressly made at the meeting.

(i) Electronic Meetings. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Bylaws, a meeting of the members may be conducted, in whole or in part, by electronic transmission by and to the Corporation or by electronic video screen communication if (1) the Corporation implements reasonable measures to provide members present in person or by proxy a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting and to vote on matters submitted to the members, including an opportunity to read or hear the proceedings of the meeting substantially concurrently with those proceedings, and (2) if any member votes or takes other action at the meeting by means of electronic transmission to the Corporation or electronic video screen communication, a record of that vote or action is maintained by the Corporation.

SECTION 4.06

ACTION WITHOUT A MEETING

- (a) Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the members may be taken without a meeting, if all members consent in writing to the action. The written consent or consents shall be filed in the corporate minute book. Any actions taken by written consent shall have the same force and effect as the unanimous vote of the members.
- (b) Action by Written Ballot Without a Meeting. Any action that may be taken by any meeting of members may be taken without a meeting by written ballot complying with Section 4.06(b)(i) and (ii) of these Bylaws.
- (i) Solicitation of Written Ballots. The Corporation shall distribute one written ballot to each member entitled to vote on the matter. Such ballots shall be mailed or delivered in the manner required by Section 4.05(d)(iii) of these Bylaws. All solicitations of votes by written ballot shall (1) indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirement; (2) with respect to ballots other than for election of Directors, state the percentage of approvals necessary to pass the measure; (3) with respect to ballots for election of Directors, state the name of each nominee; and (4) specify the time by which the ballot must be received in order to be counted. Each ballot so distributed shall (1) set forth the proposed action; (2) provide the members an opportunity to specify approval or disapproval of each proposal; and (3) provide a reasonable time within which to return the ballot to the Corporation, specifying the address to which the ballot is to be sent. In any election of Directors, a written ballot which is marked by a member “withhold” or is otherwise marked in a manner indicating that authority to vote is withheld, shall not be voted.
- (ii) Number of Votes and Approvals Required. Approval by written ballot shall be valid only when (1) the number of votes cast by ballot (including those ballots that are marked “withhold” or otherwise indicate that authority to vote is withheld) and received within the time specified equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action, and (2) the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required for approval at a meeting at which the total number of votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by written ballot without a meeting.
- (iii) Revocation. A written ballot may not be revoked.
- (iv) Filing. All written ballots shall be filed with the Secretary of the Corporation and maintained in the corporate records for at least two (2) years.

SECTION 4.07

RECORD DATE FOR NOTICE, VOTING, WRITTEN BALLOTS, AND OTHER ACTIONS

- (a) Record Date Determined by Board. For purposes of determining which members are entitled to receive notice of any meeting, to vote, or to give consent to corporate action without a meeting, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a “record date,” which shall not be more than sixty (60) nor fewer than ten (10) days before the date of any such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days before any such action without a meeting. Only Members of Record on the date so fixed are entitled to notice, to vote, or to give consents, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of any membership on the books of the Corporation after the record date, except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation or in the California Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law.
- (b) Record Date Not Determined by Board.
- (i) Record Date for Notice or Voting. If not otherwise fixed by the Board, the record date for determining who is entitled to receive notice of, or to vote at, a meeting of members shall be the next business day preceding the day on which notice is given or, if notice is waived, the business day preceding the day on which the meeting is held.

(ii) Record Date for Action by Written Ballot. If not otherwise fixed by the Board, the record date for determining those members entitled to vote by written ballot shall be the day on which the first written ballot is mailed or solicited.

(iii) Record Date for Written Consent to Action Without Meeting. Unless fixed by the Board, the record date for determining those members entitled to vote by written consent on corporate action without a meeting, when no prior action by the Board has been taken, shall be the day on which the first written consent is given. When prior action of the Board has been taken, it shall be the day on which the Board adopts the resolution relating to that action.

(c) Definition of “Members of Record.” For purposes of this Section 4.07, a person holding a voting membership at the close of business on the record date shall be a Member of Record.

SECTION 4.08

PROXIES

(a) Right of Members. Each member entitled to vote shall have the right to do so either in person or by one or more agents authorized by a written proxy, signed by the member and filed with the Secretary of the Corporation. A proxy shall be deemed signed if the member’s name is placed on the proxy (whether by manual signature, typewriting, telegraphic transmission, or otherwise) by the member or the member’s attorney-in-fact.

(b) Requirement that General Nature of Subject of Proxy be Stated. Any proxy covering matters for which a vote of the members is required, including amendments of the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws changing voting rights; removal of Directors without cause; filling vacancies on the Board; the sale, lease, exchange, conveyance, transfer, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the corporate assets, unless the transaction is in the usual and regular course of the activities of the Corporation; the principal terms of a merger or the amendment of a merger agreement; or the election to dissolve the Corporation, shall not be valid unless the proxy sets forth the general nature of the matter to be voted on or, with respect to an election of Directors, the proxy lists those who have been nominated at the time that notice of the election is given to the members.

(c) Revocability. A validly executed proxy shall continue in full force and effect until:

(i) revoked by the member executing it, before the vote is cast under that proxy,

(A) by a writing delivered by the Corporation stating that the proxy is revoked, or

(B) by a subsequent proxy executed by that member and presented to the meeting, or

(C) as to any meeting, by that member’s personal attendance and voting at the meeting, or

(ii) written notice of the death or incapacity of the maker of the proxy is received by the Corporation before the vote under the proxy is counted, provided, however, that no proxy shall be valid after the expiration of eleven (11) months from the date of the proxy, unless otherwise provided in the proxy, except that the maximum term of the proxy shall be three (3) years from the date of execution. A proxy may be irrevocable. The revocability of a proxy that states on its face that it is irrevocable shall be governed by the California Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporations Law.

RECORDS

(a) List of Members. The Secretary shall keep, or cause to be kept, at the Principal Office of the Corporation or at a place determined by resolution of the Board, a record of the members of the Corporation showing each member's name, address, telephone number, facsimile number, email address, and class of membership.

(b) Member's Inspection Rights.

(i) Membership Records. Subject to the California Non-Profit Mutual Benefit Corporations Law, and unless the Corporation provides a reasonable alternative as provided below, any member may do either or both of the following for a purpose reasonably related to the member's interest as a member:

(A) Inspect and copy the records of members' names, addresses, and voting rights during usual business hours on five (5) days' prior written demand on the Corporation, which demand must state the purpose for which the inspection rights are required; or

(B) Obtain from the Secretary of the Corporation, on written demand and tender of a reasonable charge established by the Corporation, a list of names, addresses, and voting rights of members who are entitled to vote for the election of Directors as of the most recent record date for which that list has been compiled, or as of a date specified by the member, after the date of demand. The demand shall state the purpose for which the list is required. The Secretary shall make this list available to the member on or before the latter of ten (10) days after (i) demand is received or (ii) the date specified in the demand as the date as of which the list is to be compiled.

The Corporation may, within ten (10) business days after receiving a demand under this section, make a written offer of an alternative method of reasonable and timely achievement of the proper purpose specified in the demand without providing access to or a copy of the membership list.

Any inspection and copying under this section may be made in person or by the member's agent or attorney. The right of inspection includes the right to copy and make extracts. Any right of inspection extends to the records of any subsidiary of the Corporation.

(ii) Accounting Records and Minutes. On written demand presented to the Corporation, any member may inspect, copy and make extracts of the accounting books and records and the minutes of the proceedings of the members, the Board, and committees of the Board at any reasonable time for a purpose reasonably related to the member's interest as a member. Any such inspection and copying may be made in person or by the member's agent or attorney. Any right of inspection extends to the records of any subsidiary of the Corporation.

(iii) Maintenance and Inspection of Articles and Bylaws. The Corporation shall keep at its Principal Office, or if its principal office is not in California, at its principal office in California, the original or a copy of its Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, as amended to date, which shall be open to inspection by the members at all reasonable times during office hours. If the principal office of the Corporation is outside California and the Corporation has no principal business offices in this state, then the Secretary shall, on the written request of any member, furnish to that member a copy of the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, as amended to date.

ARTICLE V

Members of the Board shall be referred to individually as “Director” and collectively as “Directors”.

(iv) Borrow money and incur indebtedness on behalf of the Corporation and cause to be executed and delivered for the purposes of the Corporation, in the corporate name, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, deeds of trust, mortgages, pledges, hypothecations and other evidence of debt and securities.

(b) Board of Directors Representation. If authorized by the Board, special groups may designate a member of the Board.

(c) Governance. Special groups specifically authorized by the Board shall elect their own officers, enact their own bylaws, and determine group policy, so long as all are compatible with and in the best interest of the Corporation. The President of the Corporation or a member of the Corporation staff designated by him shall be the ex-officio secretary of all such groups. Elected officers may be removed for cause by the Board after notice of specific charges, an opportunity to answer, and a hearing before Board.

SECTION 5.03

NUMBER OF DIRECTORS; TERM AND RESTRICTIONS ON DIRECTORS

- (a) Number of Directors; Composition of Board. The Board shall consist of the following:
- (i) Not less than three (3) and not more than eighteen (18) at-large directors, until changed by amendment to these Bylaws. The exact number of authorized at-large directors may be fixed within the foregoing limits from time-to-time by the Board. The initial authorized number of at-large directors shall be eighteen (18).
 - (ii) The immediate past Chair.
 - (iii) Directors who have completed their terms but who have completed at least one year as an officer and who are in line of successive officer positions.

- (c) Transition. For the election for 2008, lots will be drawn to determine which Directors will be elected to one, two or three year terms.
- (d) Restrictions on Directors. Not more than forty-nine percent (49%) of the persons serving on the Board may be Interested Persons. An Interested Person is (1) any person being compensated by the Corporation of services rendered to it within the previous twelve (12) months, whether as a full-time or part-time employee, independent contractor, or otherwise; and (2) any brother, sister, ancestor, descendant, spouse, brother-in-law or father-in-law of such person. However, any violation of the provision of this paragraph shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any transaction entered into by the Corporation. A Director may not participate in any vote on any proposed transaction with another organization or entity of which such Director is also an employee, principal or director; however, this prohibition does not apply if the proposed transaction is with an entity related to the Corporation.

SECTION 5.04

- (a) Nominating Committee. The Chair will use his best efforts to appoint a nominating committee ("Nominating Committee") prior to February 15th of each year and said committee will consist of no more than nine (9) members including the immediate past chair as chair, three (3) other past Chairs and no more than three (3) Western States Directors.
- (b) Qualification of Directors. Among the authorized at-large Directors, no more than eight (8) shall be elected by members with addresses on the membership roll of the Corporation in Southern California (the "SoCal Directors"), no more than four (4) shall be elected by members with addresses on the membership roll of the Corporation in Northern California (the "NorCal Directors"), and no more than six (6) shall be elected by members with addresses on the membership roll of the Corporation in the Western States other than Northern California or Southern California (the “Western States Directors”). Qualification to serve as a SoCal Director, NorCal Director, or Western States Director under this Section is determined by the director-candidate’s address on the membership roll of the Corporation at the date of his or her election. Each member in good standing with an address on the membership roll of the Corporation in the Western States shall have the right to vote for only Western States Directors. Each member in good standing with an address on the membership roll of the Corporation in Southern California shall have the right to vote for only SoCal Directors. Each member in good standing with an address on the membership roll of the Corporation in Northern California shall have the right to vote for only NorCal Directors.

In order to transition to the Board Composition contemplated herein, for a period of three (3) years following adoption of this amendment, the total number of at-large directors will be allowed to increase to no more than twenty-four (24) at-large directors, with the exact number to be set by resolution of the Board, so that current Directors may complete their term and initial NorCal Directors may be nominated for election. However, at all times, a minimum of one-third of all voting directors shall be SoCal Directors.
